TEXTUTE OF RESPECT,

The W. F. M. Society at Hebron has been called on to mourn the death of one of its lived members. On the afternoon of June the 14th Sister Lizzie Covington quietly passed from ourth to her reward on high. For years she was corresponding sect'y and was always present at the monthly meetings until failing health prevented her attendance.

Robert Ward, Maxey's, Ga., says: "I suffered from blood poison, my head, face and shoulder were one mass of corruption, achos in bones and joints, burning, itching scabby skin; was all run down and discouraged, but Botanic Blood Balm our down and gave my skin the rich glow of health. Blood Balm put new life into my blood, and new ambition into my brain." Geo. A. Williams, R/xbury, fuce covered with pimples, chronic sore on back of head The W. F. M. Matrimony and Rhyme.

Boy. Alex W. Bealer, in the Atlanta Journal, tells the following story ascribing it to the Reverend B. L. Bevins, of Americus,

Over the Chattahooche in the State of Alabama there lives a farmer who is something of a poet. He is shen a justice of the peace. Recently while plowing in his field 15,16 a man and a woman, in a buggy, stopped and waited until he came 15,16 to the end. The end of the row 22,23 being reached he approached 30,31 thom. Standing by the side of the buggy he performed the ceremony with no other witness than the horse to the buggy and the mule to the plow.

Returning to his office he made out a certificate of marriage which he weighed turning the scales at 58. He certainly had success But here in the middle of the road Let none but him who yields the thunder Dara to put this loving pair asmider.
